MANDATORY DISCLOSURE

The R. V. Higher Education and Technical Institute is established by Akash Education Society in 2004 to achieve and sustain excellence in management education in the country. The institute will provide the requisite ambience, facilities, resources and motivation to the student community, faculty, industry and society at large to assimilate, create and manage contextual knowledge. The Institute will contribute to propel higher national growth, ethical practices and holistic development of the participants in this quest for knowledge. The Institute will strive to be a leader in management education and stimulate the concept of Life Long Learning and research. The focus of the Institute will be the student community and the faculty members because they would be the twin engines of growth and dynamic knowledge management.
